

Commentary on candidate 1 evidence

The evidence for this candidate has achieved the following marks for each section of this course assessment component.

Knowledge and understanding

The candidate achieves the top end of the 14-17 criteria. They demonstrate a very good knowledge of Frantic Assembly's practice and within the assignment they manage to weave this solid understanding into their analysis of the performance.

Analysis

The candidate achieves the lower end of the 18-20 criteria. The analysis of the production is highly effective with detailed, well selected and relevant examples from the performance. The candidate regularly considers the implications of the question.

Structure and line of argument

The candidate achieves the middle of the 18-20 criteria. The candidate presents, convincingly, a strong personal argument and response to the theatre making and the question. There is independent thinking evident and the candidate makes excellent use of resources. The conclusion follows naturally from this and is highly convincing.

Total marks

The candidate was awarded 18 marks.

Commentary on candidate 2 evidence

The evidence for this candidate has achieved the following marks for each section of this course assessment component.

Knowledge and understanding

The candidate achieves the top end of the 7-9 criteria. They demonstrate a basic knowledge of Boal's practice and his theories for Legislative theatre. They demonstrate a sound understanding to support their analysis.

Analysis

The candidate achieves the lower end of the 10-13 criteria. The analysis of the production chooses some relevant examples of performance and mainly considers the implications of the question.

Structure and line of argument

The candidate achieves the lower end of the 10-13 criteria. The candidate demonstrates an argument that is stronger and clearer towards the end of the assignment. It does demonstrate some independence of thought. Sometimes the sources are not integrated, but the assignment has a sound conclusion.
