

Candidate 1

The candidate evidence has achieved the following marks for each element of the coursework assessment task.

Dissertation title: To what extent did the Nazis' policies towards women succeed in achieving their aims between 1933-1939?

Analysis, evaluation and line of argument

There is a fluent and insightful presentation of the issues. There is also a firm grasp of the evaluative aims of the question and a very assured and consistent control of the arguments and issues.

Historical sources/ interpretations

There is a sound knowledge and understanding of historians' interpretations and arguments.

Thoroughness/ relevance of information and approach

Treatment of the issue is based on wide research and demonstrates a considerable width and depth of knowledge. The candidate's evidence is linked to points of analysis and evaluation.