

Candidate evidence

Candidate 1

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	(out of the two) In that time, two people were competing ^{for} between themselves for leadership, Indutimarus and Cingetrix; the second of was the warrior, as soon as to for found out it was known about the arrival of Caesar and his legions, went to him [Caesar], he stated that he himself and all his own people would be in the alliance and that they would not move away from the friendship of the Roman people. But Indutimarus began to gather at cavalry and infantry for and prepare for war. (leading citizens) But a few of the seven and those brought in by the friendship persuaded by the friendship at Cingetrix, and those terrified by the arrival of the army some went to Caesar and began to see make requests for their own needs affairs from him. Indutimarus Indutimarus, hearing that he might

~~be abandoned by ~~ever~~~~ was being abandoned by enemies, with ~~an~~ Ambassador~~s~~ having been sent to Caesar,
 said that if Caesar allowed the tribe
 to be in his control, ~~they~~ * ~~themselves~~
 would go to him in the camp
 and would entrust ~~their~~ ~~state~~ his ~~ambassadors~~ fate and the fate of the ~~city~~ community under his protection.

Caesar ordered ~~the~~ ~~to~~ ~~200~~ ~~of~~ ~~Indutomanis~~ ~~see~~ that Indutomanis come to him with 200 hostages.† With these having been ~~led~~ ~~in~~, brought in, with his son and all his close family members ~~and~~ ^{amongst} them
~~of~~ ~~the~~, he was consoling
 Indutomanis and encouraging him so that he would stay in the alliance.

† lest he was ~~being~~ ^{be} forced to waste ~~there~~ in the
 * he himself Treveri, & his summer

QUESTION	MARGIN
Section 2
When she arrived at this place When the warrior-goddess, who is who is fearsome in war, arrived at this place, she stood still in front of the house (for she thought it was not proper to enter the house) and she knocked the door with the end of her spear. The door the shaken doors opened. Having been shaken, the doors opened.
And when she saw the goddess and dazzling goddess and both the her beauty, and, the beauty of her armor, she groaned and at dropped down down in her face and at sigh at the deep breaths at the same time. Paleness settled was in her mouth face, thinness was in her whole body. Along Her eye-contact was never a straight to, her teeth
were blackish-blue with mould, her chest was green with bile, as her tongue was stained with poison.	