

Candidate A evidence

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
1.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• the printing press was important because it meant the news was less likely to be fake.</li><li>• Unlike the internet there wasn't a lot of room for so called 'fake news' therefore it was deemed less important</li><li>• the printing press was also important as it guided the world of news for five centuries.</li></ul>
2.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 'dizzying' - implies that things are unsteady and unclear</li><li>• 'hist - 'between truth... and cruelty' This list emphasises the lack of clarity caused by the internet where news is concerned</li><li>• the use of a semi colon between lists 'cruelty; between' emphasises the following point which indicates the</li></ul>

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	importance of the following statement of concern.
2	• 'misguided mob.' The word 'misguided' articulates a miss lack of direction within social media. People are being led to believe a false truth.
3	• The 'truth' is lost within uncertainty. Because of a lack in communication on the basis of finding out fact rather than gossip, there is no longer a designated 'truth' about anything.
4	As a result of how fast news travels, the reporters who don't often have facts wrong are unable to salvage any truth. The faster news spreads, the more likely people are to believe it. Especially when the news is coming from more than one messenger.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN

5. 'manipulation' - indicates the slight brain washing being done by those who create these fake stories. ~~People~~ are people are being led to believe these stories at the benefit of these news agencies.

'unstoppable' - suggests the news is spreading at a rate which is too fast to come back from/reverse.

'cascade' - indicates the news taking over. Rising through without knowing the damage.

'motive' - indicates other reasoning behind sharing the info - other than to inform. It suggests a benefit for the messenger.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
6.	The internet has found a way to single it us out and produce platforms for each user individually, resulting in these users being less likely to see the consolidation of false facts.
7.	The writer uses the word 'steered' metaphorically. Just as a car steers in one direction or another, so the news organisations are going in the opposite direction from public interest. The writer uses a list 'attracting... profit' to emphasise the variety of malicious malicious benefits gained by the journalists.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
8.

• 'junk food news' just as junk food is addictive yet extremely bad for us, so the news we hear is most likely false and not good for us to hear. Yet we indulge into it for fear of missing out or the curiosity of ~~reading~~ knowing.

8. 'embraced' - tells us that the old ways of sharing news should be kept in high regard and used to their full capacity. 'list reporting... statements' to emphasise the variety of ways in which we can ~~be aware~~ gather and share the truth.

'scrutinises' implies that the positives must rise above and take over the negatives.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
9.	The passages disagree on the fact that fake news should be abolished. Passage one says that we are vulnerable when confronted by fake news, however passage two says we are vulnerable without knowing the fake news. The passages also disagree that on the fact that fake news is a natural thing in which everyone is okay with. Passage one says people should rise above it and come together to <sup>show</sup> rise the real truth, however passage two says we should be exposed to all news and left to think for ourselves. The passages disagree on the fact that fake news the problems with the internet should be dealt with. Passage one says it is an urgent

