

Candidate evidence

Candidate 1

QUESTION	MARGIN
1a	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He was poor.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Officials did not have to look out for their men or workers.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He experienced the complexities in Bithynia.
b	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Because she revealed the truth that he was lying. • Because she made him have to admit to not having slaves and backpeddle. • She was much more clever and quick witted than he anticipated.
2a	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He calls it poisonous poetry "male perdis poeti" • He calls it horrible "horridum" • He calls the book "libellum" which can mean little book showing he is diminishing its importance and credibility

QUESTION	MARGIN
2b	by suggesting it is small. Catullus says he's going to get a number of bad books to send in revenge for the awful one he received, "books ^{he likes} "caestros, Agimus and. Sufennum"
2a
3	Catullus starts the line 12 with "Di magni" meaning great gods showing his utter exasperation and the despair he feels at receiving such an awful present. He uses imagery of purity from ^{the} "integri" "puellae et pueri integri" to symbolize the ideal state people should approach the gods; with kindness and pure intent.

QUESTION	THIS MARGIN
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• only the alliteration of the letter m in "maximi magne" creates a humming sort of tone per the stanzas common in religious sermons.• Catullus also uses words which are often said throughout religious sermons like "sancta nomina" which can be heard in church hymns and official sermons referring to the sacred name of god.• he describes Dianus direct person to demonstrate how powerful she is as a god listing her direct duties like as the goddess of the moon and childbirth.• He uses imagery of nature often referring to the moon "luna" and the poet in earlier stanzas which creates a religious tone as

OF QUESTION	THIS MARGIN
	nature is the ultimate symbol of purity and gods creation. Vergil the reference can be symbolic of the days of the early creation as well.
ha	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • People who dislike Catullus and wish to hurt his feeling say the country home is a part of "Tiberis" which is a country he surely doesn't align with. • Those who like him ^{him} say it's in Sabine. • Catullus prefers to say it's in Sabine. • The home is ^{seemingly} on the border of both countries.
bi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • over indulgence and attending a prestigious dinner with famous guests • snobbery. • has caused him stomach ache

OF QUESTION	THIS MARGIN

and illness

ii • returning to the county here which ~~she~~ did not punish him further.

• seeing the ^{estate itself} ~~estate~~ hearing the soul and laughter of the ~~mind~~.

5 • In poem 8 Catullus creates a contrast between orators and poets. Romans might have found this amusing if they believed ~~it was a~~ that poetry was actually the finer work.

• Catullus calls his piece the 'best Roman' implying that the race over all is quite bad which can be amusing as for Romans as it is meant as a personal dig.

• They might have found it funny that someone would stand out in court like in poem 10 because of strict rules and about conduct in these days

QUESTION	MARGIN
6

- Now people might feel poems & puns as it mentions the Roman patronage system which is when poets ~~and~~ or artists were sponsored for their work so people might believe Catullus is making a ^{joke, criticism} ~~jest~~ for ^{extra} money.

- He's now spiteful and believes he's been tricked by her previous praise "kiss your cruel cold" implies that she was lying.
- He says he has more than lost but also pithy affection towards her.
- He says that even though she hurts him now he's only grown more obsessed with her.
- He is less in love with her and treats her worse

QUESTION	THIS MARGIN
	man before even though he "burns still more ardently" for her.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • he says she has no significant significant influence
7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • he calls her "nea vita" meaning my life showing that she means the world to him and demonstrates his devotion to her
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He calls ^{begs} the gods to make her promise of three long time the "Di maji"
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He wishes their love will last an eternity "perpetuamque ferre"
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He calls on the gods to be witness to his declaration emphasizing sincerity as it would be unpleasantly ^{fundamentally} wrong to lie on part of the gods.

QUESTION	MARGIN
8	• He overreacts with his love for Lesbia shown in poems 13 and 12 where he calls on the gods to be divine witnesses to his love • He exaggerates in poem 12 when he cries to the gods and asks why he should suffer so when he has treated Lesbia so well. • He exaggerates in poem 6 where he says that over indulgence at his own vanity forced him to leave his ^{country home} from illness in an ^{east} east ^{east} here. • He overexaggerates in poem 3 where he says that bad poetry physically makes him sicker ^{sick}.

QUESTION	MARGIN
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He over-exaggerates the relief of coming home from his abroad in poem 1 • He exaggerates that he is unable to sleep and eat in poem 9 because the vicereine doesn't respect to him saying he's "half-dead". • He exaggerates Septimus and Acres love story by implying how Cupid kept sneezing approval on their love declarations. • He testily exaggerates Catullus over reacts about the poem book in poem 3 saying he will set down his pen a collection of bad books back • He overreacts when in poem 2 he calls Venus' girlfriend a "bitch" just because she saw through

OF QUESTION	THIS MARGIN
his lies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He overreacts when praising others and any self modesty or false modesty like in poem 1 to describe his book as "libellum"
many little book although he is very ^{aware of its brilliance and} proud of it so each wish's it to last centuries.	