

Candidate evidence

Candidate 1

	A certain poor farmer set out on a long journey.
	Not long after, he approached a rich merchant, casually ^{he had} with him he had a considerable amount of cash. As it usually happened, ^{the farmer} this man started up a conversation with this man on the road Soon, ^{both} both they both decided ^{that they should} to complete the journey as friends.
	With his new friend they checked into the same inn.
	When the friends had checked into the same inn,
	together they had supper ^{in the same place and then} they decided to sleep
	After supper they went to bed and soon after supper they were sleeping. Earlier the innkeeper was noticing ^{was noticing} noticed the merchant, who had openly showed off his cash. During the night he ^{secretly, he killed} secretly approached the merchant that was asleep ^{asleep} and he stole the money.
	Next ^{next} he reentered the other bedroom, and placed the blood-stained sword in the farmer's luggage.
	Then he went back to his own bed.

QUESTION	THIS MARGIN
extremely upset was In the morning, the farmer was extremely ^{at that} upset ^{he} shouted at ^{the} man had killed him ^{the man}.
The innkeeper grabbed the innocent friend,
(he) pulled out the ^{his} sword from his luggage and
found it to be blood-stained. This unfortunate
man was arrested and was ^{was} thrown ^{to} into prison.
(was)	