1)	" have you looked in a mirror lately "
	The use of word choice convey's Lucille to be rude as she doesn't think Spanky is good looking enough to take her out and expects higher standards.
	" What time d'you want me too "
	The use of word choice conveys Spanky to be very confident in himself as he expects Lucille to go with him to the dance straight away
	" How childish "
	The use of word choice convey Lucille to be more mature than Spanky and thinks the nickname Spanky has given to the staff dance is ridiculous and confused by it. ⁴

	" Course I have... every morning when I'm shaving."
	The use of word choice conveys that Spanky is very unaware that he is being insulted and doesn't understand the meaning behind Lucille's rudeness.
	2) " When he offers you the desk ... light up ... that will impress him."
	This shows Phil's sense of humour as he is sarcastically making a joke to Spanky that if he lights a cigarette in front of his boss he will be amazed by it when it is not allowed to be done in

The slab room.
" Just tear the skin off your lips."
This shows Phil's humour as he's saying that they woodbine was can isn't that dangerous to your body except from 'tearing the skin off your lips'
3) " Yes or no? "
The use of of word choice uses a short sentence to create tension by Phil wanting an immediate answer from Luaille and not letting her out till she gives him a specific answer.
" Let me past, I said "
The use of word choice

character of Phil shows rebelity as he is being told off for the lies he has chosen to spread and doesn't think about the consequences he's going to face when he doesn't take his work seriously enough.

Elsewhere in the play
Byrne uses the character of Phil to explore central themes through mental health issues. Phil's mother faces very serious mental health issues and throughout the play we see that Phil uses humour
as his coping strategy towards what his mother does.

"No it was a ford perfect."

This shows how Phil's character

	uses humour to take away the seriousness of the car crash that his mother was involved in so that he doesn't have to talk about his feelings toward it and uses it as a defense mechanism.
	"Water therapy"
	Phil uses the joke of "water therapy" when his mum was found trying to drown herself in the water as a type of 'therapy' to make her feel better.
	When the hospital calls Phil thinking it was the art school disappoints him and he shows a lack of interest on what's happening with his mum's situation.
