This restaurant shouldn't get 5 star I went to a restaurant which rated 5 star and I can say that the atmosphere was very bad. It was too noisy, I had a feeling that I'm on a football match than in a restaurant.

The staff come to my table and ask me what would I like to eat. After 5 minutes one of waiter bring me my dish then after few minutes the staff come to me and they ask me "do the meal taste good" or "would I like to eat something else" they was so annoying because they don't let me to eat, they only ask me question which make me very upset.

The Menu was very shocking because the prices for a meals was very expensive also drinks was very expensive too. and I was looking something not expensive in the menu, and spaghetti bolognese was in the good price.

The food in restaurant was okay but I expected that the food be good and delicious.
Some parts of my meal was cold but should be hot in the sauce was too much water, sauce was made wrong by chef.

In my opinion I don't recommend this restaurant because it's too expensive there and I only lost my money, the staff was very annoying, the atmosphere was bad because it's noisy there and the food it's not delicious.
