

QUESTION	MARGIN
2	The role of media is to Educate, Entertain and inform their audience. The One article, that can be seen to have a particular purpose is was when the Sun 4 reported The Hillsborough disaster in 1989. The Sun reported "The Truth" that fans pick pocketed, urinated on brave cops and beat up a cop giving CPR. The purpose of the Sun reporting this, the way they they did could have been to protect the interest of the police by shifting the blame to the fans. The Hillsborough disaster was a human crush that happened on the 15th April 1989 at Sheffield stadium. The match was between Liverpool and Nottingham forrest FC. At this time the fans had reputation for being hodgkins. ~~and~~ ~~This~~ This helped to make it easier. ~~the~~ <sup>SUN</sup> for the ~~reporters~~ to blame ~~the~~ <sup>without being challenged</sup> fans. A NUJ Code of conduct States a Journalist should Strive ~~to~~ to report honest, accurate information this was not the case for ~~the~~ Hillsborough as the Sun failed to check its sources, as the police opened gate and allowed all the fans in <sup>with no control</sup>

Another case where the media may have had ~~was~~ a purpose was when they took part in ~~the~~ phone hacking to get stories for their ~~the~~ personal gain. They hacked the phones of many celebrities and Even the phone of missing school girl Milly dowler. The media ~~has~~ had no right to invade the privacy of Others to collect stories ~~from~~ ~~there~~ for them to make money.

The media reported unfairly when they were ~~to~~ reporting the murder of Joanna Yates. ~~The media did~~ ~~The~~ Several of the newspaper companies reported poorly against Jo's landlord Mr Jefferies as ~~they~~ they believed he was to blame <sup>for her death</sup>. The media had a clear purpose here, ~~of blaming an innocent man~~ of conveying their opinion that he ~~had done~~ <sup>murdered Jo</sup> as he looked creepy and went to <sup>an</sup> all boys school. They purposely blamed ~~him~~ <sup>him</sup> for her death ~~when it wasn't~~ <sup>instead of researching</sup> ~~him~~. The ~~real~~ facts of her death and finding out who ~~the~~ <sup>really</sup> her killer really was.

Fox news are a news outlet in America, they are known for being biased and they serve the purpose of reporting Rupert Murdoch's opinion as fact. ~~They should~~ They get away with doing this as they are not regulated, they are allowed to regulate ~~themselves~~ <sup>themselves</sup> ~~themselves~~. Their ~~purpose~~ purpose is to convey their opinion not fact when it should be the other way about.

~~Many~~ Many media outlets serve the purpose of Entertaining their audience they do ~~whether~~ this ~~is~~ through reporting silly celebrity stories instead of current news affairs ~~times wars~~ ~~place events~~ As they believe their audiences care more about what Kim Kardashian is wearing instead of the wars in Syria.

	The purpose of All media outlets and <sup>their</sup> content <sup>should be</sup> is to report the facts by educating and Informing their audience of the facts to help them <sup>help them</sup> make their own decision on the stories.	