

Candidate 4 – Christianity (Question 4)

4.	Beliefs about God are very significant for Christian beliefs as he is the creator of the world. Many Christians believe God to be omnipotent (all powerful) and that he is the creator of space, Earth and humans like in Genesis one and two where it is shown that God created the Earth in 6 days. This is very significant for Christian beliefs as without God the world and humans would not exist. However, God being omnipotent can be questioned as if	K K K K F

from Jesus and the belief that he is God allows Christians to believe him.

One of ~~the~~^{Jesus'} main beliefs was to love God and your ~~neighbour~~^{neighbour} meaning to love everyone and to not have ~~any~~^{any} discrimination towards the poor and such. This ^{is} is an important belief as it pushes Christians to help the suffering like the Salvation Army and tells ~~us~~^{us} that God greatly cares for us and wants ~~us~~^{us} to show compassion to each other. ^E

However, it can also be ~~the~~ said that some Christians believe you have to ~~the~~ live according to the new and old testament, and while thinking they are showing love by telling you how to be with god, are discriminating towards certain groups of people who don't follow their beliefs, by threatening hell.

Lastly, an important belief about Jesus is how he did the sacraments. This heavily effects protestantism as they only do 2 sacraments (baptism and the eucharist) as those are the only ones Jesus enforced during his life. This is an important belief as it tells protestants that God will still allow them in to heaven even if they don't do all the sacraments.

However, Catholic Christians would disagree and say this is not important as they believe all Sacraments must be done to get to heaven and to overcome alienation. I think that this belief is significant as it allows more to be accepted by God as anyone who does these 2 sacraments can be with God and if you do more you can still be with ~~God~~ God in the after life.
