Q15	One sexual relationship is homosexual relationship. This involves two people of the same gender engaging in a sexual relationship. This kind of relationship is seen as abnormal. Some Christians would say "God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve". This means that God created man and women to procreate because this is the only purpose of sex. However when two people ^{of the same gender} engage in a sexual relationship a baby can't be made in a natural way, therefore some Christians don't see the point of homosexual relationships. Another sexual relationship is prostitution. Prostitution is when two people engage in a sexual relationship in exchange ^{exchange} for money. This is an old profession practiced mostly by women. Prostitution is

Some Christians would say "All sins are committed outside the body, but whenever sins are committed with the body, those don't have respect for the their bodies." This means that Christians see prostitution as a sin that should not be committed. Another sexual relationship is heterosexual relationship. This is when a man and a woman engage in a sexual relationship to procreate. This is the typical family set-up seen normal by society. Some Christians would say "Be fruitful and multiply". This means that Christians believe that people should have babies as this is the only purpose of sex.

	One last sexual relationship is under-age sex. The age of consent consent in UK has lowered to 16. Therefore any sexual relationships before to age of 16 are considered an offence. Some Christians would say that no sexual pleasures desires should be allowed to happen before the right age. This means that only young people should wait to go have the right age before having sex because they won't realise how bad the consequences can be. They will do what they feel it's right at that moment, however consequences such as pregnancy can happen.
