22b In the Bible it says that ~~we~~ 'wives should submit to their husbands'. This means that men can do whatever they want with their wives and some men may use their wife for sex.

Another quote from the Bible ~~is~~ speaks about how if ~~you're~~ you're are slave or non slave you are all one ~~with~~ with Jesus Christ. This could tell us that ~~of~~ Jesus wasn't a fan of people being kept ~~kept~~ as slaves ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> people who were slaves are still accepted by God along with ~~peopl~~ other people.

23	Gender roles can force people into situations they don't want to be in. This can make make people have a bad mental health and negative self worth. For example, a woman being pressured by society to work in a job she doesn't want to do can make her not want to work or see colleagues.
	Another moral issue raised by gender roles is that they can enforce ideals that women should stay home and have kids while their husband goes out and works. This creates stereotypes that marriage should only be between a man and a woman which is harmful to the LGBTQ+ community and also harmful to women who might not want children and want to have a career and to men who would rather stay home and look after children.

24b I disagree that marriage should be for life because if someone is in an abusive relationship they will want to leave so their mental health doesn't deteriorate. Abusive relationships are not good and some people can't change so would be best if the couple split up rather than staying together. Especially if you have children you wouldn't want them growing up in an unstable household.

~~Another reason I disagree that marriage should be for life is because~~

However a reason I agree is because if you have children and think you can make the relationship work with ~~with~~ methods like couple or family therapy, this can be very beneficial to have both parents together in a kids life, ~~especially~~ <sup>especially</sup> if the kids are ~~going~~ going through tough times
