

Candidate 3

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION		DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
9.	In 2020, Marcus Rashford wrote a letter to MP's discussing how they should bring back Free School meals during the Covid Pandemic to families struggling with poverty and child hunger. Rashford uses effective techniques to make us agree to Rashford's idea of bringing free school meals back.
	Rashford uses effective techniques to analyse explain the amount of children suffering. Firstly Rashford writes, "Food Poverty is a pandemic that could span decades." This is highly effective as Rashford is linking it to the Covid pandemic. Something quite topical, he uses this to put all eyes on MP's to make a change and put an end to Food Poverty. Rashford uses this to explain that food poverty has grown so much is down to the Covid pandemic and the lack of school meals. This makes the reader agree with Rashford's view on child hunger. Secondly Rashford writes, "9 out of 30 children in a classroom have been impacted by food hunger." This is highly effective as that's putting the MP's into the perspective on how bad food poverty and child hunger has become, he is wanting change to be made, this is making the reader agree with him for the MP's to make a change. Lastly Rashford writes that

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	as their stomachs rumble - this is highly effective as Rashford is and explaining that more and more children are facing food poverty and the stomachs aren't getting fed. he is using this to explain how long will it take till the MPs make a change, Rashford is making us agree that change must be made soon. The way Rashford uses these techniques to ^{to explain the} problems level of food poverty is effective.
	Rashford uses effective techniques to explain the the MP's ^{reaction} reaction Rashford writes that. "I'm aware of the benefit system." Rashford is applying his own understanding and his own experiences with the benefit system and he is explaining how this isn't enough for these children and families, he is explaining that more than the benefit system needs to be put in place. this is making the reader agree. Some families would get by even with the help of school meals. Secondly, Rashford writes, it's not about politics this is not about politics" he is explaining to the MPs that this issue needs resolved no matter what your political opinion is, this is about humanity Rashford is trying to explain even with some help from MPs it would make a huge difference. lastly Rashford wrote

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	"I have received thousands of tweets that you should read" Rashford is speaking directly to the MPs instructing them to read these tweets from families experiencing or have experienced food poverty and child hunger. What he is trying to do is show the level of poverty the children and families are at and make an important change to them. This is making us agree with marches' point of view that change is needed. The way Rashford uses effective techniques to explain to MPs about poverty. Rashford uses effective techniques to explain parents view and experience with poverty or child hunger. Firstly Rashford writes that "during this pandemic people are existing on a knife's edge." This is highly effective as it emphasises how one missed bill will have a major spiral effect on the families struggling. Rashford used this to show to MPs how difficult it is for these poverty stricken families to pay bills and put food on the table they wouldn't have to worry so much if the MPs brought back free school meals so the families some cash to put towards bills. This makes the reader agree that free school meals need to come back. Secondly Rashford writes that "do you know difficult it is for a man to step forward and say I can't cope" the use

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	 of a rhetorical question is highly effective as he is explaining that its tough to see fathers struggle, fathers are seen as heroes and now in these tough times these fathers will be seen in a different. Its tough for men to say Im struggling because here not supposed to be but Rashford uses this to explain to MPs that even the toughest men are struggling and even here seeking help, they need support this makes the reader agree with Rashford that change needs to be made. lastly Rashford writes that, Ive listened to fathers say that here dealing with anxiety, mental health problems and unable to sleep - they are struggling having to deal with this because MPs arent helping, these problems have been brought on due to the pandemic, Rashford uses this to explain to MPs that change is needed which make the reader agree with Rashford.
	 In conclusion, Rashford wrote a successful letter to MPs that help is needed to make a difference to fix or reduce food poverty through free school meals. 