imagery. Imagery makes you think about how Massimo is feeling. When he says "I went to school here, my mums brother was born here, my mammy's buried here" - This paints an image in your head that his whole life has been here and he has memories here so doesn't want to leave. When Hugie is pretending to be an aeroplane and Lucia is cowering and feeling threatened by it. This is important as it's relating to how Massimo is feeling. He's scared of war and Lucia is scared of Hugie being a plane flying about making noise. game" and Lucia agrees with him by saying "I don't like it either". This is important as it shows that Nuggie and Lucia both would be very frightened by war which related to the play.

In the extract the theme of war is explored when Massimo says war is ~~be~~ going to happen in Italy. The theme of war is also explored throughout the novel when the police go to the door and take Massimo away to fight in war. "Italy is coming to war. It's looking bad, Rosie" This shows the theme of war as it's showing Massimo expressing concern to Rosie about war ~~s~~ happening.

	Critical Essay
	'On the side walk bleeding' by Evan Hunter is old a short story about a boy who got young boy called Andy who got viciously attacked by a rival gang called 'The guardians'. Andy got a knife plunged into his chest and was then left to die on a sidewalk bleeding to death. In this essay I will discuss ways in which I feel sympathy for Andy.
	One reason I feel sympathy for Andy
	One reason I feel sympathy for Andy is because when he got stabbed, he nobody would help him. This was because Andy was part of a gang called 'The Royals' and they didn't want to get mixed up in all the drama or have

"If he died, he died Andy not a Royal."
This quote shows that once Andy had been stabbed and was left dying he realised realised that being part of 'The Royals' got him killed not because he was Andy. Andy wanted to die being known as him not as a Royal. This makes me feel sympathy for him as he's now just realised that it was the gangs name not him they wanted to stab.
Another reason I feel sympathy for Andy is because in the short story he says he wanted to have a life with Laura but ^{now} he wouldn't as he was dying "Someday I will marry Laura" This quote shows he had his life planned out but now it's ruined because ~~of him~~ he is dying and nobody will help. It makes me feel sympathy for him as he was only 16 ~~years old~~ but he knew Laura was the love of his life. Now he had no chance of marrying her.

I feel sympathy for Andy when he spoke about how before he was stabbed he was proud to be in the Royals but now it meant nothing. "There was some sort of pride knowing he was a Royal. Now there was not. This quote shows that before he got stabbed he was proud of himself for being in the gang but now it was stupid and it cost him his life.

	Another reason I feel sympathy for Andy is when he realised he was dying. Andy had tried to persuade himself he wasn't dying but eventually he came to terms with it and realised he was. "He was filled with sadness that his life would be over at 16." This quote shows that Andy is feeling upset - that his life is going to be over so young. He had a full life ahead of him with Laura but sadly that was cut short.
	I also feel sympathy for Andy when he says "The knife hated only the purple Jacket". This made me feel sympathy for him as he now realises realises that it was only the knife that hated the Jacket and

	Another reason I feel sympathy for Andy is because at first he never hadn't realised he was actually dying. "I can't be dying,.... not after a little street rumble" This quote shows that Andy was indignant about his death and Andy didn't think he was dying so that's why I felt sympathy for him as he was.
	but 'On the side walk bleeding' by Evan Hunter made me feel a great deal of sympathy towards Andy as a character. Andy died because he was stabbed ^{by} the 'The guardians'. He died
