

Candidate 1 evidence

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
1.a)	Dukkha is the first of the four Noble truths, it means that all living beings will will and have faced suffering and that this is just a fact of life. Dukkha links with the other three Noble truths in the sense that Tanha (we suffer because we crave), Nirodha (there is a solution to suffering) and Magga (the solution is the the The noble eightfold path. The 4 Noble truths are thought to be the ^{answers/solution} the to stop all suffering in life. 1.b) Dukkha may affect Buddhists because it in everyday life nowadays, everyone craves and wants something. An example

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	of this would be a Buddhist who wants to expand/develop their career and because they want something they don't have, they suffer. Buddhists are affected by Dukkha because it is normal and easy for them to crave things and so they suffer (links with 4 noble truths).
2.	One way a Buddhist might meditate is through music. Buddhists often use bells and gongs during meditation. One reason a bell is used is because it represents the stilling of the mind as it rings out. Chanting is also used during meditation.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	as a way to recite and memorize Buddhists texts. Meditation is used as a way to collect good kamma and come closer to Nibbana as a way to (or a better re-birth) come closer to Nibbana.
3.	Nibbana is the ultimate goal for Buddhists. Through a Buddhists life they act well by following the Buddha teachings eg. The Noble eightfold path (right speech, action, view, intention, concentration, mindfulness ect...) and the (or Five) ten^v precepts. ^{If} Buddhists act and follow these they collect good kamma overtime which will ultimately result in a better re-birth or an escape

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	From the wheel of Samsara (Wheel of life) and into Nirvana
4.	One of the three Jewels is The Buddha. The Buddha was the first to reach enlighten- ment after meditating under a fig tree (^{The} Bodhi tree) for 49 days. He found the way of ^{the noble eightfold path, ect...} the life (the middle way) and taught this to others. His teachings are the Dhamma, and was taught to his followers (the sangha).
5.	The Buddha's teachings are are still relevant in the 21st Century. An example of this is the middle way which teaches to give life not too greedy

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION		DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	Overall the teachings of the Buddhist are harder still relevant in the 21st century even though they may be harder to follow than before.

Candidate 2 evidence

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
380	Embryos can be used to help Scientists understand defects in babies and research genetic disabilities and illnesses. Embryos can be used via IVF if a woman has difficulties becoming pregnant. Embryos can be used as Stem Cells to help heal injuries or illnesses. Embryos can be used to help ^{scientists} gain knowledge on how babies develop.
380	Embryos may raise moral issues because embryos are potential people that may will die as a result of embryo research. Embryos

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	Can cause is debates about When do they become human Another argument is do embryos have human rights. Genetic selection is something that can also raise moral issues. Because of these arguments embryo research is debatable because it can be considered murder as the embryo is a potential human.
	Active euthanasia is when somebody takes/does some thing to speed up death. Non-voluntary euthanasia is when the person dying doesn't have a say if they

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	live, for example switching off life support. Voluntary euthanasia is when someone wants to die. Assisted dying is when someone else helps you die as you can't kill yourself. Physician assisted dying is when a doctor helps you die. By doing this doctors are breaking the Hippocratic Oath.
10	A religious person may think say end of life care is good as people are being looked after and their needs are met. End of care life is good because people

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	can have fun and play games. Hospices have medical equipment if someone needs it. Hospices can help people cope with death.
41.	There is there is Suffering is a thing nobody wants. Helping someone die can be compassionate as you are allowing them to escape pain and fulfil their wishes. However on the other side killing someone is a crime and a sin in the bible. No matter if someone asks you to kill them or not. No matter which side you look at it there are pros

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	and cons. As long as you cherish that person and love them with your heart that is one thing you can't do wrong. Situations are different. Sometimes euthanasia is right, other times it is wrong. There isn't a definitive answer to euthanasia. It depends on your opinion.

Candidate 3 evidence

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	Part C Section 3 - The Problem of Evil and suffering
50a)	One form of evil is Natural evil this is when evil occurs because is a natural event caused it for example Hurricanes, this is ^{is} natural evil evil* by destroying the buildings and land. (* as it happens because of the earth's conditions) Another form of evil is Moral evil, this is when evil occurs because of someone causing it by doing things they shouldn't for example terrorism, this is ^{is} evil ^{moral} evil to happen because it is caused by someone trying to hurt or upset people.
50b)	People might think humans are responsible for evil because the way we live our daily lives it is destroying the earth and cause things such as terrorism and Natural

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	disasters. Also people can be responsible for moral evil because they try and straight up cause violence or issues among others. Therefore humans can be seen to be the main cause for evil.
50c)	People might argue that peop humans are not responsible for evil because they think that natural evil just happens because of the big and things changing in our solar system and that's why natural disasters occur. Also people ^{or determinis} might argue that God doesn't give us free will for someone to cause evil and so it happens because it was always meant to happen. Therefore some people think that there ^{none} & it is humans fault for ^{evil.}
51a)	Christians believe god to be omniscient (all powerful ^{knowing}) omnibenevolent (all loving) and omnipotent (all- powerful ^{powerful}). They also believe that he is the creator

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	of the world and all that lived in it. Therefore he is seen to be the most important Person because he knows and sees everything.
5/5)	Some Christians believe that because God lets evil and suffering happen because it is to test our belief in Christianity and him. For example in the story of Job, He loses ^{loses} everything and his life didn't go the way he wanted it to go. But because he stayed true to God and believed in him he got everything back because he did. A determinist believes that Some Christians believe that God gave us free will to choose whether we believe in him or not. Therefore Therefore we have complete freedom in anything we do and

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION		DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	Because of our actions there are consequences to follow it. Therefore it is questioned whether there is a good god because of evil and suffering. I think that that we have free will to a certain extent, and I agree with both sides as I believe we do have free will but I agree with the determinists thinking and view point. (A determinist believes that we do not have free will and that we are like birds in a cage because he has everything planned out for us. Therefore they are faced with the question whether there actually is a good god or not because he lets evil and suffering occur.)	