

Introduction commentary 1

TOPIC – WILL THE POSITIVE IMPACTS OF THE INTEREST RATE RISE OUTWEIGH THE NEGATIVES ON THE UK ECONOMY?

The candidate was awarded 3/3 marks because ...

The candidate gained 1 mark for the purpose of the assignment (by giving the question in the title) and 2 marks for the background on the topic.

Introduction commentary 2

TOPIC – HOW DOES AN INCREASE IN INFLATION AFFECT THE UK ECONOMY?

The candidate was awarded 3/3 marks because ...

The candidate gained 1 mark for the purpose of the assignment (by giving the question in the title) and 2 marks for the background of the topic.

The candidate appears not to have used the current version of the Coursework Assessment Task document as there is a statement about the reason for choosing the topic, which is no longer required, and has been awarded no marks.

The candidate has also given a definition of inflation in the Introduction section which has been awarded no marks, as the Coursework Assessment Task document clearly states that any point of theory must be given in the Findings, Analysis and Interpretation section.

(The candidate has not used the correct section heading and therefore did not gain one of the 'Structure' marks.)

Introduction commentary 3

TOPIC – WOULD LOWERING INCOME TAX AND CORPORATION TAX INCREASE THE UK'S GDP?

The candidate was awarded 3/3 marks because ...

The candidate gained 1 mark for the purpose of the assignment (by giving the question as a title on a frontis piece) and 2 marks for the background on the topic.

Introduction commentary 4
