The evidence and commentary for this candidate were used within the ESOL National 5 and Higher Writing webinar in January 2022.

Writing -Study

- I went to a state primary school from 1997-2003. The teaching was very kind and helpful, they always help the students to become best students in school, they give us advice.

- I like to groupwork with students to help and share each other. One of the pluses of groupwork that it saves time and increases ideas. When I was in primary school, the sports teacher made us a football team for school, the team consists of all classes of school. We were a good and strong team because we played together, the strong helps the weak and the weak helps the strong then we win.

- Minuses of groupwork, I don't see any minuses of groupwork. I think working with the individual has minuses because you need new advice and ideas to compare with your own ideas and knowledge.

Conclusion. I think that groupwork is better than individual. In my opinion.
