Read the task below and write your answer on the lined answer sheets below and on page 03.

The local council is running a competition for the best ideas to increase environmental awareness amongst students in schools and colleges. Your school or college is not very environmentally friendly but you would like to enter the competition.

Write a formal e-mail to your school head or college principal. In your e-mail you should include some or all of the following:

- reasons for entering the competition
- suggestions about recycling
- energy saving ideas
- making the local area more wildlife friendly
- raising awareness in the school/college
- how students could get involved

You should write between 140–160 words.

Dear sir/madam,
I have some ideas for your school pupils to have fun and be safe, you should make some competitions against other people to win something to make everyone join and have fun. You should get the students involved by giving them an option to with what do they want to do, so I would recommend basketball or Dancing something that they enjoy. Then Go somewhere like to the zoo and give the students some paper and make them work as a team and make them walk about and make posters to not to litter. After they done the posters they should count or mark how much rubbish was on the floor not in the bin... after your done counting all the rubbish add them all together, next time you could do that at school or a play area. Thank you for reading this I hope some of my advice helped.
