

Candidate 7 – Work

The candidate has answered some points of the task well and there are examples of them attempting to use more challenging items of vocabulary and grammatical structures. However, there are frequent and basic spelling errors, and there are occasions where register is incorrect and grammatical usage is not always accurate.

Mark awarded: 9

Content and organisation

The candidate fully achieves task with support for some points made (the staff meetings point is not fully supported). Writing is coherent and cohesive, and the message is clear. Style and layout are mostly appropriate (good structure/sections) however the opening line is too informal for the intended reader.

Vocabulary and spelling

The candidate uses a wide range of vocabulary accurately and appropriately within the context of the task. 'Current situation', 'staff morale', 'founded', 'engage with one goal'. There are frequent spelling errors as the task progresses, and these sometimes occur with basic vocabulary items: 'mounth', 'pemitting', 'wik', 'consider', 'beetwing'. 'stuff/staff' is noticeable but meaning is still clear from context.

Grammar and punctuation

There is a wide range of grammatical structures used with a reasonably high level of accuracy, including good use of the passive: 'will be included', 'should be organised', 'since it was founded'. Punctuation is accurate.
