

Candidate evidence

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
7.	Ovid compares the maze to the river Maeander to show how tricky the maze is. By making this comparison, Ovid suggests that the maze is <sup>very</sup> unpredictable and confusing. This also makes it seem as if the maze has a mind of it's own and the paths are changing constantly like the waters of the river.
8.	He says that <sup>Minos</sup> Daedalus controls <sup>all the surrounding</sup> the land and sea as he is very powerful. However, <sup>Minos</sup> Daedalus challenges <sup>Minos</sup> as he says: 'the sky lies open', he plans to use the open sky area of the sky.
9.a)	He is using skills that have never been used before. The Roman world had never seen anything like this. Ovid Ovid does this to emphasise that the things

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	Daedalus was doing were extraordinary extraordinary and never done before
b)	Yes because this had never been done before. This was something extremely new and innovative which the Romans would have been interested in. The Romans were often innovative and would like to hear about new inventions. However, from this story it must be <sup>noted</sup> reasoned that it is dangerous to change nature.
10.	The most hard Ovid says that he was handling things he didn't know were dangerous for him. This shows that he doesn't understand what is happening. Icarus while he was playing with the wings, he softened the wax. Also Icarus had a wide grin on his face suggesting he didn't understand the dangerous

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	nature of the undertaking.
11a)	Don't fly too close to the sun
b)	Don't navigate by the stars.
12.	Daedalus was crying as he knew what could happen to him. He flew in front of him to protect him. He kissed him, showing his love and affection. <sup>Phaedrus</sup> He feared for his son.
13.	Yes as it makes the story seem more real to the reader and so we become more emotionally attached to the characters. Therefore we feel a greater and more powerful sense of loss when Icarus dies.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
14.a)	Icarus became bolder and more confident at flying so he was decided to go on his own.
b)	Icarus flies to away <sup>close</sup> to the sun, which melts the wax on his wings. This causes him to fall into the sea where he drowns.
15.a)	Talus is clever and talented like his Uncle. He is also a great inventor. They are also both great innovators.
b)	Minerva loved Talus because he was clever.

ENTER NUMBER OF QUESTION	DO NOT WRITE IN THIS MARGIN
	b) I think Minerva saved Talus' life because she took pity on him cause he had done nothing wrong. I think she saved his life also because he was young and had a lot to offer the world. <sup>with his talents</sup> talents <sup>because</sup> because Finally, I think the most important reason was that she likes intelligent people. and