

Commentary on candidate evidence

Candidate 9

Work

The candidate was awarded 10 marks.

This piece of writing is effective and efficient and answers the question well. It is easy to follow and contains few errors placing it in the 10 – 9 band.

Content and organisation

This is a well organised piece of writing with an appropriate use of style and layout for a discursive report. The task is fully achieved with clear support for the points made. The use of headings guides the reader and supports the structure of the writing, but they are not used excessively.

Vocabulary and spelling

The vocabulary is accurate and used appropriately within the context of the task with good use of collocation.

Spelling is mostly accurate although there are some errors, but these are not persistent and do not impact on clarity, for example, (espessialy).

Grammar and punctuation.

The candidate uses an appropriate range of structures. There are occasional grammar errors, for example, (these website, to allow to pick), however, these don't impede communication.

The punctuation is mostly accurate.
