

Bird Table

This work was made for H26E72 Science in the Environment – Managing an Environmental Area. It was also used to support a pupil to achieve H70G71 Practical Craft Skills – Working with Materials. The pupils had to research different designs of bird table and select their joint favourite. They then had to work together to assemble the parts and varnish/paint.

(provided by St Clements School – Dingwall)