

Christmas Trees and Decorations

Pupils applied their learning from life skills maths practical craft skills and art and design during an interdisciplinary Christmas project to make wooden Christmas trees. Pupils designed, made and decorated salt dough decorations to add to their wooden Christmas tree. Additional decorations were sold as an enterprise project during the school Christmas fayre and pensioner's lunch. The pupils were responsible for the set up of the stall and displayed their decorations on their wooden Christmas trees.