

Shell Mobiles

The pupils were introduced to natural resources that were collected from the beach. Resources were prepared and the pupils researched possible projects. After deciding on shell mobiles pupils transferred skills from maths and practical craft skills to complete their project.